

Danube Cycle Path Vienna - Bratislava

in 2 Days

RAD & REISEN

The Danube cycling path does not end in Vienna! East of Vienna begins the fascinating landscape of the Pannonian Lowlands. The wonderful "Donauauen" Nature Reserve is host to one of the last primeval forests in Europe. Furthermore, the Slovakian capital Bratislava enchants its guests with a lovely restored old city centre and numerous intriguing sights.

Tour profile: Level 1; Paths are paved and mostly flat. Upon entering and leaving cities there is, but of course, traffic that must be closely observed!

Accommodation:

4-star hotel In Bratislava

ITINERARY

1. Day: Vienna – Bratislava, approx. 42 km + train

Depart from the big city life and ride into pure nature. The "Donauauen" National Park can easily be enjoyed in peace and quietness. A passage with a small ferry (not incl.) is a possible timeless adventure. After a short break on a quick train ride, you get back on the bike path and cycle to Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. Perched high above the city, a majestic castle salutes you from afar. The affectionately restored old part of the city and its innumerable cafés are awaiting your visit. Take advantage and enjoy a stroll through this remarkable city.

2. Day: Bratislava – Vienna

Provided bus from Bratislava to Vienna. Option: hydrofoil boat ride (surcharge applies).
Duration: approx. 1:20 hr
